

Bio for Jennifer Karin Jordan-

Jennifer Karin Jordan is a California-based author with a passion for celebrating the spiritual in our daily lives and educating others. She has worked as a writer and teacher and holds dual Master's Degrees in Education and School Counseling. After getting to know her father better after her mother passed away from cancer, she felt inspired to write DADLY Wisdom to celebrate the lives and wisdom of fathers. She then spent many years interviewing fathers throughout the world, and she now offers their powerful stories in this transformative book of love, joy, and inspiration.

Interview Questions for Jennifer Karin Jordan Regarding DADLY Wisdom: Untold Stories That Represent the True Faces of Fatherhood-

1. Who or what inspired you to write the book?
2. How did you come up with the title and subtitle?
3. Why did you choose to interview fathers from around the world?
4. What surprised you the most during the process of writing the book and interviewing the dads?
4. Could you share some of the DADLY wisdom which the fathers shared with you?
5. Did any special or unusual things happen in the interviews?
6. What benefits can readers get from this book?
7. What is the main message you'd like people to get (take away) from the book? What do you hope the stories in this book will accomplish and what would you like the readers to learn from the wisdom of the dads in this book
8. How did the dads and their stories impact you?
9. .Did your father share any wisdom which helped you in making the book?
- 10 How can people contact you?

Jennifer Karin Jordan's contact information-

www.dadlywisdom.com

Facebook - Jennifer Karin Jordan Author

Twitter - @JKJordanAuthor

Linked In - Jennifer Karin Jordan

jenniferkj@charter.net

562-208-4869